

BEING MORTAL: Medicine and What Matters in the End

NO CHARGE! OPEN TO THE PUBLIC!

JOIN US for a free screening and discussion of the PBS FRONTLINE film Being Mortal. Based on the best-selling book by Atul Gawande, MD, this documentary explores the hopes of patients and families facing terminal illness and their relationships with the physicians who treat them.

See the film and be part of a national conversation that brings medical professionals and community members together around the shared responsibility of discussing what matters most to patients and families facing difficult treatment decisions and how to have these conversations ahead of a medical crisis.

Presented by the Sacramento Hospice Consortium

Friday, July 14, 1 - 3 pm

Rancho Cordova City Hall

2729 Prospect Park Dr, Rancho Cordova

In partnership with Yolo Hospice, Ambrosia Fine Food and Home Care Assistance

Please RSVP with your name, phone number, email address, Hospice affiliate and number of guests by emailing info@sachospice.org or calling (916) 388-6288.

This is a special screening for volunteers and staff of the seven not-for-profit hospice programs of the Sacramento Hospice Consortium and their guests. We are particularly interested in including anyone who may consider becoming a hospice volunteer, but all are welcome to join us!
